1 Read the e-mail quickly. What class is really hard?

To: mrty@gc.com

From: trrnce@gc.com

Subject: College and Boston

I don't have to get up early.

Hello, Marty!

How are you? I'm fine, but I miss you. It's my second week here at college. I was nervous at first – I didn't know anyone. But I'm overcoming my fear and I'm starting to like it.

I don't have to get up early because all my classes start late. I have to do a lot of homework every day. My ecology class is really hard, but I like it.

Boston is an exciting city. The food is good. I'm eating oysters right now at a cool little restaurant. Last weekend I learned how to row a boat and navigate it down a river. I'd like to join the boating club.

How is high school? Do you have to go to soccer practice every Saturday?

Say hi to Mom and Dad.

Your brother,
Terrance

1 Read the article quickly. Underline the verbs in the simple past.

A Modern Hero

Susan Butcher is a modern hero in Alaska. She moved from Boston to Alaska in 1974. She loved dogs and dogsled racing, and she wanted to take part in the Iditarod. The Iditarod is a race with a dog team, and it's about 1,000 miles (1,610 kilometers) long.

Susan learned important skills for the race from local people. She raced a few times but didn't win until 1986. Susan also won the race in 1987, 1988, and 1990. Susan was the second woman to win the race. The first woman to win was Libby Riddles. She won the race in 1985.

In 2005, Susan got very sick, and she died in 2006. Today, the first Sunday in March in Alaska is "Susan Butcher Day."

I wanted to move more flexibly and think more clearly, so I took a few martial arts classes. I went regularly and practiced patiently, but I didn't really like them – they weren't fun. Then a friend said, "You should try Capoeira." I did, and I love it. Capoeira is a martial art for self-defense, and includes music, singing, and dancing.

I go to class four times a month, and practice once a week at home. At first, it was difficult, but I followed my teacher's instructions carefully, and now I can do the moves more comfortably.

In class when we learn something new, we move slowly. But when we practice moves, we usually move fast, so we sometimes forget what to do! My teacher says we shouldn't worry about that. She says that we should just enjoy every class. And we do.

I can see some of the benefits of studying Capoeira. It's good for self-esteem and discipline, and it's a lot of fun. When you have the chance, you should try it!

2 Complete the sentences with the underlined words from Part 1.

1. When you do martial arts regularly, you will see the benefits quickly. You will feel healthier, and your _____ will probably improve, too.
2. You need to _____ a lot to become really good at a martial art.
3. Capoeira is a kind of martial art and teaches _____ skills.
4. To practice something every day you need _____.

3 Read the blog in Part 1 slowly. Circle the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. Petra didn't like (her martial arts classes / her patient practice / her teacher).
2. A friend told her about (philosophy / Capoeira / self-defense).
3. She practices (four times a week / four times a month / once a week).
4. When they practice moves, they move (quickly / comfortably / slowly).
5. Petra's teacher thinks it's important to (join / study / enjoy every class).

1 Complete the conversation with should or shouldn't.

1 Read the messages on the Web site quickly. What's Juanita's local library going to do?

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "www.earthdaythisyear.gc". The main content area has a heading "What are you going to do for Earth Day? Tell us about it." followed by three user posts, each with a profile picture and a name.

What are you going to do for Earth Day? Tell us about it.

 NancyPlanet
My neighborhood is going to have an Earth Walk. The newspapers are telling people to walk everywhere they can on Earth Day. My parents are going to walk to work. I'm going to walk to school. My brother can't walk to his job – it's too far – but he's going to ride his bike. Stores are going to donate water and snacks for people.

 Matt14C
We're going to have a fund-raiser at our school. We're going to sell organic snacks. We're going to sell tie-dyed T-shirts, too. They say, "Save the Earth!" We're also going to sell denim hats that say, "Green is Good." We'll use the money to buy big recycling bins for our school.

 JuanitaVerde
The local library is going to have an art contest for Earth Day. Anyone 12 to 102 can enter! You have to make art with used things only. My best friend and I are going to make a tree with used computer ink cartridges and my father's old ties. Ten winners will have their art in the library all year!

1 Read the article quickly. What number did Chuck call?

An Unusual Rescue

We have a new hero right here in Marvindale. Last week, Chuck Edgers was watching the news when he heard a cat meowing loudly. The sound was coming from his neighbor's house. He went to the house, knocked on the front door, but no one answered. The meow got louder. He went to the back of the house. The back door was unlocked, so he pushed it open.

His neighbor, Fred Williams, was sleeping on the couch when Chuck entered the living room. He shook Mr. Williams but he would not wake up. Chuck carried Mr. Williams outside and called 911.

The rescue workers came and helped Mr. Williams. They went into the house and later said his carbon monoxide alarm wasn't working. The cat and Mr. Edgers saved Mr. Williams!
