

Units 1–3 Progress Writing Test

Write a blog post about something you have been doing to help the environment.

In your blog post, write about:

- when you started doing this.
- how it is helping the environment.
- any challenges you have faced doing this.

Check:

- Use verbs that express emotion and opinion adjectives to make your writing more personal.
- Use a variety of present and past tenses.

Write 160–180 words.

You can use this space for notes.

Write your task here:

Doing my part to help the environment

I want to tell you about what I have been doing to help the environment.
