RE: Sorry I was out

Dear Mel,

Thanks for your message and I'm sorry I was out when you came over. If I have / had / would known you were coming, I'd have (1) stay / stayed / staying in. We could (2) _____ had a nice talk to catch up on everything. Dad said that you (3) _____ had an interview in Boston. I hope that it went well. If they offered you the job, (4) _____ you take it? It (5) could / can't / can be a great opportunity, since Boston is an awesome city. If I (6) _____ you, I'd go for it.

Did Dad mention (7) the / a / – news about my sister, Anita? She's just decided to get married to her boyfriend, so I might (8) _____ going to a wedding soon! (9) _____ Everyone / All / Everything is very shocked as they have only known (10) _____ other for a few months. When I asked her (11) _____ she was getting married, she (12) told / said / wondered, "Because I want to." It's typical of (13) Anitas' / Anita's / Anitas behavior – she has always pleased (14) himself / herself / myself!

Anyway, enough about my family – you (15) must / can't / could be bored with it all! How is (16) everything / all / all of with your mom and dad? I saw your younger brother last week – he looks just (17) same / like / as you. And I bumped into your sister in town. She was so friendly (much more easygoing than (18) my / myself / mine!)

Let me know what happens with (19) _____ job interview. Take care of (20) yours / you / yourself and write soon.

Lisa
