The Larmer Tree Festival

If you love music and ¹ a , you have to go to the Larmer Tree. Every July near a small village called Tollard Royal in the south-west of England there's a four-day music festival. Musicians come from all over the world to play there because it's such a special place and the atmosphere is so friendly.

The gardens are big enough for 4,000 people ² ___ or for the four days. Most people decide to camp because there is no accommodation there, so they take their tents and bring all their food and drink with them. There are a lot of different food stalls as well, so you can try all kinds of foods. There are also lots of stalls ³ ___ , so it's a great place for buying presents.

There are lots of things for children to do as well. They can learn to make things like decorations ⁴ ___ . On the Sunday afternoon there is always a parade and they can take part in it with their parents. Often they dress up as different animals or birds and they make their own costumes. It's very colourful and everyone enjoys it.

Although there are a lot of people there, ⁵ ___ because everyone is so friendly and relaxed, and you often meet old friends. The sun doesn't always shine, but that doesn't matter because people are always in a good mood. The main thing is the music, so if you want to experience something special, ⁶ ___ . I guarantee you'll have a good time.

a going to concerts and festivals

b you feel as if you're at a party

c and you can buy day tickets, or you can stay for the weekend

d I recommend this festival

e where you can buy jewellery, clothes, books and paintings
