Reading

16 Read Sally's blog. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

My travel blog

We're here in Sydney and it's fantastic. We arrived at about 11 o'clock this morning from Singapore. We started our journey yesterday in London and had to change planes a couple of times. It was a very long journey but I slept for a few hours so I'm not tired now. We had breakfast on the plane at about 7 a.m.. It was funny because it was the evening in England! I was very excited so I didn't eat much. David finished my food because he's always hungry! Don and Louise were at the airport to meet us and they drove us straight to their house. They live very near Sydney Harbour so we can see the famous bridge and the Opera House from their home. It's amazing. There are a lot of boats on the water, too. It's summer here and it's very hot – over 30 degrees!

We're here for three weeks so we're going to do lots of interesting things. I love the water so we're going to go swimming and I want to try surfing on Bondi Beach! Our friends are students so they're on holiday too and they're going to take us to visit different places outside Sydney. David loves animals so tomorrow we're going to go to the zoo and see some of the special Australian animals. I've got my camera with me so I'm going to take photos and put them on my blog so you can all see them.
