A SIMPLE LIFE

The Amish people in America live in a very simple, traditional way. They keep animals and produce their own food. They don't use modern machines, and they travel by horse and cart instead of by car. The children haven't got many modern things, like mp3 players or mobile phones.

So, what is life like in an Amish community? Sam, an Amish boy, says, 'I quite like helping my dad on the farm, but sometimes I look at my friends with their laptops and I feel jealous. I want one, too! I'm interested in playing computer games and surfing the internet like everyone else.'

Claire, who is fourteen, is contented with her life. 'I enjoy helping with the jobs around the house, especially making cakes and bread,' she says, 'and I love feeding the animals! My mum makes all my clothes, so I don't go shopping. That's OK – my mum is really good! Some people think it's strange because I don't watch TV, but I don't mind. Some of the programmes my friends watch sound quite boring!'
