Read the text and choose the correct answers: a, b or c.

My name's Sally and I'm from London. I'm twenty-eight years old and I'm not a student now. I'm a doctor in Cambridge. My brother Jack is at home and he's a student. He's 20 and he's my favourite brother. Richard is my step-brother and he's 40. He's in Paris now. He's the son of my mother. My sister Holly is in Cambridge with me and she's a student at the university there.

My boyfriend, Stefan, is from New York in the USA but he isn't really American. His father is from Germany so he says he's German! His favourite country is England and he's a student here. His English is very good. My German is very bad!

My grandparents aren't in the UK. They're in Spain because their favourite city is Barcelona. My grandmother's 65 and she's from Scotland and my grandfather's 70 and he's from England. They're fantastic people and they're my favourite family members!
