Our friends

My name is Sally and I live in a quiet street near the centre of town. Our house is quite small but we've got a big garden. I live with my husband Geoff and our two children, Polly and Jack. There are three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a big living room, a sunny kitchen and a garage. We've got two cars there! The children have got their own play room in the loft so they can play games and listen to music there. I love this house and I love our neighbours too.

Tina lives opposite our house. She's a teacher at the same school where Geoff teaches. She's a good friend. We sometimes have a cup of coffee together in the afternoon after school but she's always busy at the weekends because she does a lot of housework. I never do any cleaning at the weekends because I want to spend time with the children. I usually do it on Mondays. The children are very good and they help me a lot. They always lay the table, empty the dishwasher and tidy the living room.

Paolo lives near Tina and he's from Rome. He's a chef at the Italian restaurant in town. He's a really good cook and he makes dinner at his house for his friends. I love Italian food! He doesn't speak very good English but I speak Italian. He likes technology and he's got a big flat-screen TV and DVD player in the living room. I think he spends a lot of time on the Internet because he writes emails to his friends and family.
