I finally made it to Istanbul! The bus here was crowded, and there weren't enough seats, so some people had to stand up all night! If I had arrived any later, I would have been standing up, too. It was bad enough that I was sitting next to a man who snored all night. I finally got to sleep around 4:00 A.M., and it was so hot on the bus that it felt like a sauna.

But, an hour later, we stopped for breakfast, and all they had at the rest stop was sweet pastries. The last thing I wanted was sugar, which was going to keep me awake even longer. So I just ate some crackers and tried to go back to sleep. Not a chance! The upside is I got to see the Hagia Sofia at sunrise as our bus arrived. What a beautiful sight!
