

1 Complete the table with the relative pronouns that we use to talk about people, places or things.

People	Places	Things
that
.....

2 Circle the correct relative pronouns. Then tick (✓) the sentences which can use more than one relative pronoun and write the alternative.

- Let's go and see the film that / who won an Oscar for best picture. ✓ which
- See that strange-looking house there? It's which / where that scary horror film was set.
- Andy's the boy who / which was an extra in the TV crime drama on Channel 8.
- Joey is the new animation about a boxing kangaroo where / that becomes a superhero.
- A trailer is a video clip which / who advertises a new film or TV show.
- Meryl Streep is the famous actress which / that stars in the Mamma Mia! films.

3 Underline and correct the mistake in each sentence.

- Do you remember Cleo, the girl which moved to another town last year? who
- After a busy day at school, I need a quiet place when I can relax and watch TV or listen to music.
- If you come and visit London, I'll take you to all the places where are really famous.
- At the drama school open day, I met a lot of actors which helped me decide that acting is definitely what I want to do.
- The park is a good place for a picnic on a hot day because there are plenty of trees where we can sit under.

4 Complete the sentences with the correct relative pronouns. Tick (✓) those which can also use that.

- Shakespeare was a famous playwright who wrote Romeo and Juliet. ✓
- Our local beach is they filmed part of the new Robin Hood TV series.
- Sally Murphy is the girl in our school got hired as a volunteer on a film set.
- A comedy is a film or TV show makes people laugh.
- A producer is the person is in charge of the team that makes a film.
- The reality show about a life in a shopping centre is set my mum works.
- The documentary won an award for best wildlife series is on TV later.
- Is Stoneham the castle they shot scenes for the new crime drama?

5 Connect the sentences with a suitable relative pronoun.

- Martin Scorsese is a famous American director. He's made more than 24 films.
.....
Martin Scorsese is a famous American director who has made more than 24 films.
- A soundtrack is music. It features in a film.
.....
- Dubrovnik is a city in Croatia. They filmed a lot of Games of Thrones episodes there.
.....
- I'm not really into period dramas. They are about life a long time ago.
.....
- He's the actor from that new action thriller. He's going to be on the chat show this evening.
.....
- Did you hear about the cave rescue? It was on the news last night.
.....

1

People	Places	Things
that	where	that
who	-----	which

2

- 1 that, which
- 2 where
- 3 who, that
- 4 that, who
- 5 which, that
- 6 that, who

3

- 1 which, who
- 2 when, where
- 3 where, that / which
- 4 which, who
- 5 where, that / which

4

- 1 who, ✓
- 2 where
- 3 who, ✓
- 4 which, ✓
- 5 who, ✓
- 6 where
- 7 which, ✓
- 8 where

5

- 1 Martin Scorsese is a famous American director who / that has made more than 24 films.
- 2 A soundtrack is music which / that features in a film.
- 3 *Dubrovnik is a city in Croatia where they filmed a lot of Games of Thrones.*
- 4 I'm not really into period dramas that / which are about life a long time ago.
- 5 He's the actor from that new action thriller who / that is going to be on the chat show this evening.
- 6 Did you hear about the cave rescue which / that was on the news last night?