

A STORY

1 Work in pairs. Discuss the questions.

- 1 Do you know any stories about burglaries in your town or city?
- 2 What's the best thing to do if you find some stolen goods?

2 Read a story by Milly. What did she and her friends find in the park? What did they do?

Last summer, I was walking home with my friends. It was a lovely sunny evening and we were all chatting and laughing.

Suddenly, we saw two men. They were running into the park. One of the men was carrying a large bag and they looked scared. Two minutes later, we saw a police car. The police didn't see the men and they drove away.

We decided to see what was happening, so we went into the park. We couldn't see the men, but while we were looking for them, we noticed their bag behind some bushes. When we looked inside, we found that it was full of jewellery. We called the police immediately!

The police caught the thieves and we received a reward of £100. We were really happy!

3 Look at Milly's story again. Choose two correct answers for each question.

- 1 What should the beginning of a story do?
  - A Describe the background to the story.
  - B Say who all the people in the story are.
  - C Say when the story happened.
  - D Mention some of the main events of the story.
- 2 What should the middle paragraphs of a story do?
  - A Describe the main events of the story.
  - B Give your opinion of the events.
  - C Use verbs in the present tense.
  - D Show clearly what order the events happened in.
- 3 What should the ending of a story do?
  - A Give some extra background information.
  - B Explain the final events of the story.
  - C Leave the reader with more questions about what happened.
  - D Say what happened as a result of the story.
- 4 Choose the best title for Milly's story. Can you think of another title?
  - A An exciting police chase
  - B How to catch a burglar!
  - C A lucky find
