

1 Rewrite the sentences using direct object + for or to + indirect object.

- I bought my grandma some flowers yesterday.
I bought some flowers for my grandma yesterday.
- I baked my mum a cake in cookery class.
I baked _____ in cookery class.
- We should give her a present to say thank you.
We should give _____ to say thank you.
- He taught everyone in the class the song.
He taught _____.
- I sometimes give my sister advice.
I sometimes give _____.
- Last term I made my parents a plate.
Last term I made _____.

2 Choose a word from each box to complete the sentences. Put the verbs in box 1 in the correct tense.

bring, give, lend, pass, teach, tell	her, him, me , my friend, the students, you
---	---

- Can you pass me the salt, please?
- I _____ Julia some earrings for her birthday last month.
- The music teacher _____ a new song yesterday.
- Pablo hasn't got a pen. Jaime, can you _____ one, please?
- When Yasmin was in hospital last week, her family _____ lots of magazines.
- You say I can trust you, but I'm not going to _____ anything. It's a secret.

3 Complete the sentences using a phrasal verb in the correct form. There is one extra.

believe in depend on go for get into keep on miss out on work out
--

- I wasn't sure about running a marathon, but everyone said '_____ it.'
- I tried my best, but sadly I _____ the gold medal.
- It was my dream to be famous, but only my mum _____ in me.
- I lost my first race, but my parents encouraged me to _____ trying.
- I'd love to go to university, but everything _____ my marks.
- My aim is to open a restaurant, but I need to _____ how I can get the money.

4 Correct the mistake in each sentence. You can add, delete or change a word.

- I'll phone you soon and tell some news.
_____ tell you some _____
- Can you pass to me the ketchup, please?

- What should I say him? _____
- I gave to my mum some perfume for her birthday.

- Can you make for me something to eat, please?

- He told to me a really funny joke.

- The teacher put me a great speaking mark.

5 Complete the text using the words below. Make sure there is always a direct and indirect object. Add for or to if necessary.

bring, it build, a sailboat give pay, a couple of pounds send, some designs write, lots of emails
--

My life's ambition was always to build my own boat. My friend Bob ¹ gave me some advice about how to start. At first, I sat down and ² _____ people who had completed similar projects. Someone in Scotland offered to ³ _____, but I really wanted to do it myself. Luckily a professional boat builder ⁴ _____ and I ended up using one of them. Building the boat took 15 months in total. The hardest part was finding the wood. Finally one of my neighbours ⁵ _____ me all the way from Norway. Now I run a little water taxi. People ⁶ _____ to take them across the river. It's a great life!

1

- 1 some flowers for my grandma
- 2 a cake for my mum
- 3 a present to her
- 4 the song to everyone in the class
- 5 advice to my sister
- 6 a plate for my parents

2

- 1 pass me
- 2 gave my friend
- 3 taught the students
- 4 lend him
- 5 brought her
- 6 tell you

3

- 1 go for
- 2 missed out on
- 3 believed in
- 4 keep on
- 5 depends on
- 6 work out

4

- 1 tell you some
- 2 pass ~~to~~ me
- 3 say to him / tell him
- 4 gave ~~to~~ my mum
- 5 make ~~for~~ me
- 6 told ~~to~~ me
- 7 ~~put~~ gave

5

- 1 gave me
- 2 (I) wrote lots of emails to
- 3 me a sailboat / a sailboat for me
- 4 sent me some designs / sent some designs to me
- 5 brought it to me
- 6 pay (me) a couple of pounds