

1 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- Can this fitness tracker / portable charger monitor your heart rate?
- I don't think wireless headphones / driverless cars are safe enough to use on the roads yet.
- We were flying the drone / smartwatch over the sea when it ran out of charge.
- The interactive whiteboard / video game console allows teachers to give more interesting classes.
- A smart speaker / fitness tracker can control different electronic devices and answer simple questions.
- This smartwatch / virtual-reality headset has most of the same features as my mobile phone.
- Do you have any drones / wireless headphones I could borrow? I want to listen to some music.
- We've had this video game console / portable charger for years. I still play it a lot.

2 Match the words in the box to the definitions.

driverless car ~~drone~~ fitness tracker
portable charger video game console
virtual-reality headset

- a small aircraft without a pilot that is controlled remotely drone
- a device that charges the battery of small electronic items without using the main power supply
- an electronic device for playing games on
- a car that does not have a person controlling it
- a piece of equipment you wear over your eyes and ears so you can see and hear computer images
- an electronic device that records information about your physical health and activity

3 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- I thought his new selection of jokes were very original / originable.
- My new smartwatch is proving very useful / usably.
- No one knows why the house has been empty for so long, it's all rather mysterious / mysterious.
- I've been working in this industry for years and it's very profitable / profitable.
- You've just set a new school record which is very impressive / impressive.
- This company is selling some very innovative / innovation products.

- I've been eating chillies for years, but I've never tried one this spicy / seasonable before.
- My favourite museums are the ones with interactional / interactive exhibits.

4 Complete the sentences with the adjective form of the words in brackets.

- Your handwriting is very messy, don't be so careless (care) with your work.
- Have you ever met anyone incredibly (fame), like a huge celebrity?
- We had a very (enjoy) afternoon at the park, it was lovely.
- This pen has no ink left now, so it's (use).
- It was very kind and (thought) of Jill to give you this book.
- Lots of people enjoy watching the (tradition) dances of different countries.
- They've been having a very (adventure) holiday in Australia; climbing, kayaking and diving.
- I love certain (season) fruits like strawberries and plums.

5 Choose the correct options.

- A: Hi Uncle Jim. You look really well. I hope you're being ¹ careless / careful after your operation.
- B: I am, thanks, Todd. I'm following a new health regime and it's actually quite ² enjoyment / enjoyable. I've bought a fitness ³ speaker / tracker and I'm doing more exercise every day.
- A: That's very ⁴ impressive / creative! Especially as you never liked doing exercise before!
- B: I know. I've decided I need to be more ⁵ adventurous / reliable. If I wear ⁶ driverless / wireless headphones so I can listen to music while I move, then it's not so bad.
- A: And how's the diet? Is Auntie Liz ⁷ letting / making you eat lots of healthy food?
- B: She's trying! She'd like me to ⁸ live on / eat up fruit, vegetables and chicken, I think!
- A: Oh dear!

1

- 2 driverless cars
- 3 drone
- 4 interactive whiteboard
- 5 smart speaker
- 6 smartwatch
- 7 wireless headphones
- 8 video game console

2

- 2 portable charger
- 3 video game console
- 4 driverless car
- 5 virtual-reality headset
- 6 fitness tracker

3

- 2 useful
- 3 mysterious
- 4 profitable
- 5 impressive
- 6 innovative
- 7 spicy
- 8 interactive

4

- 2 famous
- 3 enjoyable
- 4 useless
- 5 thoughtful
- 6 traditional
- 7 adventurous
- 8 seasonal

5

- 2 enjoyable
- 3 tracker
- 4 impressive
- 5 adventurous
- 6 wireless
- 7 making
- 8 live on