TAPESCRIPT

Speaker 1

Last year Dad bought an old wooden house on the beach. We all like being by the sea, so it's perfect for us. We go swimming and diving and spend time with the other families. My best friend joined us this year and she really enjoyed herself because she likes watersports too.

Speaker 2

When I was in primary school we had to do a project on royal families around the world so I wrote to the Queen at Buckingham Palace. I didn't really think I'd get a reply but I did get a letter back thanking me for my questions. Sadly, I didn't keep the envelope but the letter is one of my favourite things.

Speaker 3

A new family have just moved in next door. The two boys are the same age as me and my brother so we'll probably see them at school but I don't know anything about their parents. Mum and Dad want to invite them all over to welcome them to the neighbourhood, so I guess we'll have to be around too!

Speaker 4

Dad's got loads of music so he's always listening to something. I like a lot of the same stuff that he likes, you know, rock and blues and stuff like that, but I'm really not into classical, although he's trying to educate me! He's even got tickets for a concert next week.

Speaker 5

As a surprise for my birthday, Mum took me to London for a long weekend. We stayed in the most amazing place with fantastic views over the city. The weather was really good, so we walked everywhere and we also went to a couple of museums but sadly no galleries as we didn't have enough time.
