READING

1 Read the text. Answer the questions.

1. What does Jenny do every day? _____
2. What does Craig do every day? _____

SPORTS AND FOOD What do athletes eat?

The marathon runner

Jenny Wallick is a marathon runner from Toronto, Canada. She weighs 50 kilograms. Every day she runs 15–20 kilometers. Jenny runs for over two hours in a race so she needs a lot of energy. She eats a lot of rice and spaghetti. She likes potatoes, too. She eats five or six times a day and she drinks a lot of water and orange juice. She doesn't drink tea or coffee because she gets thirsty.

The cyclist

Craig Smith is a cyclist from Houston, Texas, in the US. He weighs 90 kilograms. Every day he rides his bike 20–25 kilometers. He needs a lot of energy, so he eats seven or eight times a day. He eats a lot of meat and fish—beef, chicken, tuna, and salmon. He doesn't eat spaghetti because he doesn't like it. His favorite meal is chicken kebabs with rice and beans. He drinks a lot of orange juice.

- 2. Pablo rides his bike every afternoon / every day.
- 3. Pablo plays soccer in the morning / in the afternoon.
- 4. Pablo and his father go fishing every weekend / every day.

Pablo Bonilla is 16 years old. He lives in Camarones in the south of Argentina. Pablo likes Camarones. “It has everything,” he says. “Camarones has great beaches, beautiful wildlife, and interesting places to visit.”

Every morning, Pablo and his brother Pedro ride their bikes to the beach and go swimming. They usually swim for half an hour. Then they ride their bikes home and go to school. In the afternoon, Pablo usually plays soccer with his friends. After dinner, he does his homework or helps his mother with the dishes. On the weekend, Pablo works in the vegetable garden and goes fishing with his father. They sometimes see penguins swimming in the ocean.

Pablo’s mother always cooks healthy food. Pablo’s favorite meal is fish with vegetables, and he eats that meal four times a week. “I love fish,” he says. “And the penguins love fish, too!”

A bad day for new students!

Hi. My name is Sonia Gomez. I'm a new student at the University of Texas at Austin. I'm studying French and German here in Austin. I love learning languages. I also speak Spanish because my parents are from Puerto Rico. We speak Spanish at home.

Yesterday was my first day of class. It was not a very good day. My alarm clock was broken, so I was late for class. At lunchtime, the cafeteria was crowded, and the lines were long. I didn't eat lunch. Then the bookstore was closed, and I couldn't buy my books.

That's my friend Ralph in the photo. He's from New York. He's studying Portuguese at the university. He was a good basketball player in high school. Now he's playing on the university basketball team. He's really good at sports.

Last night there was a basketball game, but Ralph wasn't there. The weather was terrible, and his tire was flat. This morning he was sick, so he wasn't in class. Tomorrow Ralph and I are going to have a better day!

Subject: Vacation!

How are you? Last week I was in Los Angeles. Now I'm in San Francisco. I'm having a great time here in California. I'm checking my messages in a small café downtown. I'm having coffee, too!

I'm staying with my friend Robin. She lives near Chinatown. She's a doctor, and she works at a hospital here. But she isn't working this week, so we're spending a lot of time together. We go running on the beach every morning, and we sometimes do yoga together, too.

San Francisco is a great city. It has everything—nice weather, beautiful beaches, and great stores. And the restaurants are fantastic! We eat out every evening! We were at a great Chinese restaurant last night. The food was delicious. I love this city! See you next week.

Favorite clothes

Zoe Henning is a model. She's 23 and lives with her parents in New York City, but she works in lots of different cities. Last week she was in London, and this week she is in Tokyo.

In the photo, Zoe is working at a fashion show in Paris. She's wearing a black and white dress and high heels. "I love wearing designer clothes when I'm working. They look really good!" says Zoe. "The designers usually give us some clothes after the show, so I have lots of designer clothes at home."

But in her free time, Zoe doesn't wear designer clothes. "They aren't as comfortable as ordinary clothes," she says. She usually wears an old pair of jeans, a T-shirt, a baggy sweater, and sneakers. "When I go out with my friends, I sometimes wear a nice dress or a smart jacket, but they are never designer clothes."

Roommates in New York

by ALICIA RICHARDSON

My roommate, Mariana, is a fashion designer. She's also one of my best friends. She's 24 years old. She's short, and she has long dark hair. She's really pretty. She can look very serious and shy, but actually, she's very funny and talks a lot.

Mariana's also a very smart person. She designs dresses and suits for famous department stores, and she has her own designer brand. She loves bright colors, so all her clothes are very colorful.

We both work in Manhattan, and we both love running. We share a small apartment near Central Park, so we can walk to work every morning and can go running in the park every evening. We often go to museums and other interesting places in the city.

We play a lot of games and love cooking for friends, so there are usually a lot of people at our place. We have a great time!

READING

1 Read the text. What city is Bond Street in?

Bond Street is in _____.

Bond Street: amazing shopping

Bond Street is a famous place to shop in Europe. People from all over the world visit London to see the famous stores on Bond Street, including Prada, Mulberry, Gucci, and Hermès.

Shoppers can start near Piccadilly at De Beers, a world famous jewelry store. Between there and Oxford Street, you can find some very expensive stores. There are shoe stores, toy stores, and department stores.

A very famous and popular store on Bond Street is Chanel. It is next to the Dior boutique. It has three floors. On the ground floor, there is a space—the Bag Bar—for all the handbags, both classic and seasonal. On the first floor, there are regular clothes and the shoe area. There are special sections on the second floor for important shoppers. Here you can buy designer clothes and clothes made especially for you.

Bond Street appears in several famous books, including Jane Austen’s novel, Sense and Sensibility and Virginia Woolf’s Mrs. Dalloway. There’s even a 1948 movie called Bond Street that takes place on the street.

What's Nice about Nice?

Last summer, my husband Tony and I went on vacation in the city of Nice, in the south of France. We took the bus to the airport, but the traffic was awful. We were so late that we missed our plane! We stayed in a hotel near the airport that night and took the plane the next day. When we arrived in Nice, our luggage wasn't there. It was lost! We didn't have any clothes, so we went shopping. That was very expensive!

Our hotel was very good. The beds were comfortable, so we slept very well. And the hotel's food was delicious. On the second day, we walked along the seaside and took a tour of the old town.

We saw the fruit and flower market, ate at an outdoor café, and bought a lot of souvenirs.

On the last day, we visited the many museums and art galleries near our hotel. We wanted to go to the beach, but we didn't have time.

When we got home, we posted pictures of our vacation and made plans for the next one!

Subject: Vacation in Japan

Thanks for your email. I'm really enjoying my vacation here in Japan. Right now, I'm in Osaka.

I met some friends from college yesterday. Do you remember Brendon and Troy from our college Japanese class? The three of us went to Osaka Castle yesterday. We went by subway. It was so crowded! Tonight we're all going to go out for dinner. I'm excited because we're going to ride scooters. I'm a little worried, too, because there are so many scooters on the road!

Tomorrow I'm going to take the bullet train to Tokyo. Did you know it can travel up to 200 miles per hour? When I'm in Tokyo, I'm going to stay with my friend, Taka, for two nights. Then Taka and I are going to go by plane to Kyushu. We're going to rent a car there and drive around for a few days.

I'm going to end my vacation in Hayama. It's about 29 miles from Tokyo, so I'm going to take the bus. Hayama has five beaches for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports. The area is known as the "birthplace of yachting." The locals believe that a Japanese native built and sailed the first yacht in Hayama waters.

Well, I fly home on July 31. My brother and sister are going to get me at the airport, and I'm going to spend August at home in Minneapolis. Where are you going to be in August? Do you want to visit me in Minneapolis? I hope so. It's beautiful in the summer.

Nico

P.S. I'm attaching a photo I took yesterday at Osaka Castle.

Subject: Hello from Palma

Hi, Hannah,

We're having a great vacation! Right now, I'm in a coffee shop in Palma, the capital city.

Majorca is a beautiful island, and there's a lot to see and do. Our hotel is fantastic! It isn't in the city—it's right next to the beach. To get to our hotel, we took a taxi from the airport. That was awesome! After we arrived at the hotel, we sat on the beach all day. That was relaxing, but then we lost our money on the beach. That's right. We didn't have any money. So we changed some at the hotel, and we aren't going to lose anything else!

In Palma, we met some very interesting Spanish people, and yesterday they took us on a bus tour through the mountains. For lunch, we stopped at a great restaurant in the mountains. The food was amazing. There are so many nice places to eat here. After lunch, we went back to the hotel.

Tomorrow we're going to walk around Palma. There's a beautiful cathedral that we want to visit. Then on the weekend, we're going to rent a sports car and drive around the island. Did you know that the tennis player Rafael Nadal has a house here? We want to find it!

See you next week.

E=Evan L=Lisa

- E Lisa. It's Evan. What are you doing?
 L Oh, not much. It's just a boring Sunday afternoon, and I'm at home, streaming videos.
 E What are you streaming?
 L The soccer matches yesterday. What are you doing?
 E I'm at the library.
 L What are you doing at the library?
 E I'm doing homework. My friend Raul is here, too.
 L What's your friend doing?
 E He's helping me study.
 L What are you studying?
 E We have homework and a test on Monday.
 L We have homework? There's a test on Monday? What is the homework?
 E I have a big project about Brazil, and your project is about China.
 L Oh, no! I forgot!
 E Lisa, what are you doing?
 L I'm messaging the teacher.
 E Really? What are you messaging?
 L Just a minute. Dear Ms. Garcia, I am very sick ...
 E Oh, Lisa! What are you thinking?

PRONUNCIATION p. 28

A=Adam T=Tom

- A Hi, Tom. Why weren't you at basketball practice yesterday?
 T Hi, Adam. I was at home, sorry.
 A Were you sick?
 T Well, I was sick, and the weather was bad.
 A No you weren't. You weren't at home yesterday.
 T How ... how do you know?
 A I called you a lot on your phone.
 T My cell phone was broken.
 A But I called you on your home phone. The coach wasn't happy with you. We have a game on Saturday, and you weren't there, Tom.
 T I was sick! I was probably sleeping when you called.
 A Oh, come on, tell me. Where were you really?
 T OK. I wasn't at home yesterday, and I wasn't really sick.
 A So, where were you?
 T I was at the movie theater. There were some great movies showing.
 A Were you there all day?
 T No, not all day. I was also at the beach.
 A The beach? But the weather was terrible yesterday.
 T Yeah, it was bad yesterday morning. That's when I was at the movie theater. But in the afternoon, the weather was fantastic, so I went to the beach.
 A OK, tell me. Who were you with?
 T No one. I was alone.
 A Come on. I want to know.
 T Oh, I can't tell you. It's a secret.
 A I knew it! You weren't alone!

PRONUNCIATION p. 33

Y=Yan E=Elena

- Y Hi, Elena. What do you usually wear to a party?
Marisa's party is tonight.
- E Oh, I always wear jeans. How about you, Yan?
- Y Well, I usually wear my green skirt.
- E You like that green skirt a lot. But why don't you wear your new black dress? And anyway, a dress is more stylish than a skirt.
- Y Do you think so? I don't know. I don't have the right shoes for that dress.
- E Yes, you do. How about your red sneakers?
- Y Really? Red sneakers don't look good with a black dress! I need something nicer.
- E Well, OK. Do you want to wear my high heels?
- Y Really? Thanks, Elena! Your high heels are much nicer than my sneakers. So, I'll wear my new black dress and your high heels. How about you?
- E Well, maybe I'll wear my white jeans.
- Y They're great, but you always wear them.
- E I don't always wear them.
- Y OK, you usually wear them. Why don't you wear a dress tonight? You look good in a dress.
- E But jeans are more comfortable than dresses.
- Y Don't you have any other clothes to wear?
- E No, not really. Well, I have my new blue pants.
- Y Yes, they're really nice.
- E But my blue pants aren't as nice as my white jeans! So, I'll wear my white jeans tonight.
- Y I'm not surprised!

PRONUNCIATION p. 42

D=Dana C=Cesar

- D So, Cesar, what's new?
- C Well, Dana, my brother is coming to see me. His plane gets here in two hours.
- D That's nice. I don't know your brother. What's his name?
- C His name is Tonio.
- D What does he look like?
- C Well, he doesn't look like me. He isn't short and fit. He's tall and heavy, and he has curly brown hair. Oh, and Tonio loves clothes. He's much more stylish than I am.
- D What does he do?
- C Tonio has a great job. He works in an office, but he flies all over the world for business.
- D Wow. That's interesting! Where does he live?
- C Right now, he's living in Chile.
- D Chile? Wow! What is he like?
- C He's like me. He's friendly. He's funny. He's shy ...
- D You're funny? And shy?
- C No. Actually, Tonio's very smart and really confident.
- D What is he doing here?
- C He's coming for vacation, and he's staying with me for a week.
- D He's here for an entire week? That's nice. What does he like to do?
- C Well, he likes playing computer games and listening to music. And Tonio loves sports, especially basketball. Tomorrow we're going to the big game. I got tickets!
- D Do you have an extra ticket for the game tomorrow? I love basketball, and I'd like to meet your brother, too!

UNIT 9

Listening p. 52

- A Good morning. Welcome to the New York Visitors Center. Can I help you?
- B Yes, please. What can I do here in New York?
- A Oh, there are many things to do here. What are you interested in?
- B Well, I want to see some famous places, walk around the city, and go shopping, of course.
- A OK. Let's start with shopping. Are you looking for souvenirs or clothes?
- B Clothes, definitely. Designer clothes.
- A There are many places to find designer clothes. There's Fifth Avenue. There's Madison Avenue ...
- B Oh, that sounds expensive. I don't want to buy expensive clothes. Is there a cheaper place?
- A Well, you can go to Woodbury Commons. It's a shopping mall with lots of discount designer stores. The clothes are cheaper there.
- B Cheap designer clothes ... That's just what I want.
- A It's a great place, but it's about one hour from New York.
- B One hour? I can't go there. That's too far. Can you tell me somewhere a little nearer?
- A Yes, I can. Century 21 is a large discount store. It's only about 30 minutes from here.
- B Can I also buy gifts there? You know, souvenirs?
- A At Century 21? You can. But for really good souvenirs, you can go to Times Square.
- B Times Square ... What else can I do there?
- A Well, at Times Square ...

PRONUNCIATION p. 52

L=Luis M=Mara

- L What are you doing tonight, Mara?
- M I'm going out to dinner with my parents. It's my mother's birthday.
- L That's nice. How old is she?
- M Well, my dad's 50, so she's um ... 48. Hey, Luis, I wanted to ask you. Are there any good restaurants downtown? I want to try something new. I'm tired of the ones around here.
- L Yeah, there are lots of good restaurants downtown. There's a new Brazilian restaurant on Main Street. It's very good.
- M On Main Street?
- L Yes, it's across from the department store. Men need to wear a suit and tie, though.
- M Oh, I don't know. That sounds expensive. Are there any cheaper restaurants downtown?
- L Hmm, there's a cheaper restaurant on Green Street.
- M Where on Green Street?
- L It's near the bookstore. It's my favorite restaurant. It's a Japanese place with great sushi.
- M Oh, I know that place. It's next to the movie theater, right? But my parents don't really like sushi, and it's not my favorite food.
- L They don't like sushi? That's my favorite food!
- M No, I'm sorry, they don't. Do you have any more ideas?
- L Hmm, so you're looking for a really good restaurant ...
- M Well, I want a nice restaurant that's not too expensive.
- L OK, I have one more idea for you. It's not downtown, though. It's around here. There's a nice Thai restaurant ten minutes away.
- M There's a Thai restaurant around here? Where is it?
- L Do you know the coffee shop on Park Street? It's near there.
- M A coffee shop on Park Street? No, I don't.
- L Well, you know where the shopping mall is, right? The Thai restaurant is around the corner from the shopping mall.
- M Great! We can eat Thai tonight! OK, so the Thai restaurant is around the corner from the shopping mall, near a coffee shop.
- J Yes, that's right. I think your parents will really like it there.
- M I think so, too, and it's near the house. I like that! Thanks!

PRONUNCIATION p. 61

1. M On Main Street?

J=Jamie E=Eli

- J Hi, Eli. Where were you last week? I didn't see you at the gym.
- E Don't you remember, Jamie? I was on vacation.
- J Oh, yeah. How was it?
- E It was awesome! I didn't want to come home!
- J Where did you go?
- E I went to Vancouver, Canada, with my sister, Sally. You know her, right?
- J Of course, I know Sally. So tell me. How was the weather there?
- E It was terrific. It didn't rain once while we were there.
- J Oh, that's good. What did you do there?
- E We did so many things. First of all, I climbed a big mountain!
- J Where did you climb a mountain? Are there mountains near Vancouver?
- E Yeah, there are many right near the city!
- J That's great. What else did you do?
- E Well, Sally and I visited some amazing art galleries. Sally bought a great photo.
- J Did you buy anything from the art galleries?
- E No, I didn't. I lost Sally's photo, too.
- J What? How did you lose it?
- E I don't know! I think I left it in the hotel. She was really angry with me! Anyway, I also spent time on the beach.
- J How was that?
- E Nice. The water was very cold, so I just sat on the beach, read a book, and listened to the water. It was very relaxing. I went swimming every day though—in the hotel swimming pool! Oh, and I almost forgot! On the last day, my sister and I took a walking tour of the city. Vancouver really is a great place.
- J Sounds interesting! Did you buy any souvenirs?

- E Yes, I did. Lots of them! Oh, but, um ...
- J Well, where's mine!
- E Sorry. I think I left them in the hotel with the photo.

PRONUNCIATION p. 66

1. J Where did you go?

C=Cara M=Matt

- C Hi, Matt, how's your new apartment?
- M It's great, but the transportation in the city isn't.
- C Really, what's wrong with it?
- M Well, the nearest bus stop is ten blocks away. I have to walk a lot to get there.
- C Aren't there any streetcars? They are usually convenient — and very clean!
- M No, there aren't any streetcars, and there aren't any subways either.
- C So how are you going to get around?
- M I'm probably going to buy a small car.
- C But aren't cars expensive?
- M I'm going to buy a used one. My next door neighbor is going to move to Seattle, and he wants to sell his car.
- C Well, why don't you buy a motorbike? They're cheaper than cars.
- M Yes, but they're more dangerous, and it's very rainy here. By the way, where are you going to go on vacation this year?
- C Do you remember Anita? She lived down the street? Well, she's living in Florida now, and I'm going to visit her. I'm going to fly to Miami, and then we're going to rent an SUV and go camping in the Everglades.
- M You're going to go camping in the Everglades? What are you going to do there?
- C We're going to take a lot of photos of birds. We're also going to go boating and hiking.
- M Wow, maybe I'll drive there and meet you in the Everglades. It sounds like you're going to have a lot of fun!
- C We certainly are!

PRONUNCIATION p. 71

1. M No, there aren't any streetcars, and there aren't any subways either.
