3 They ~~don't~~ won't change if you do nothing.
4 Perhaps he'll say something.
5 That's a hard decision.

Ex 6

Example answer:

That's a difficult decision. You could say something to your manager, but if you do this, Olivia probably won't be happy. Maybe she'll stop talking to you and it'll be bad for your team.

You could also say something to your colleague. You could ask her to tell your manager the truth, but she'll probably stop talking to you! Maybe the best thing is to do nothing. Perhaps Olivia will think about the situation and decide to tell the truth herself and the team will continue to work well.

Ex 5

Example answer:

Hi Sophie,

Thanks for your email. It's great that you want to do more for the environment.

First, you can carry a water bottle with you so you don't keep buying water and throwing the bottles away. By doing this, you'll help to keep oceans clean and save money, but you'll need to remember to take the bottle with you.

Second, you can take public transport more often. If you do that, you'll create less air pollution but it'll take you longer to get around town.

I hope that helps.
