Everyone in the club has the chance to choose a book for the group to read. It could be your favourite book or a book you want to read. The important thing is that the books give everyone a lot to talk about.

At our Book Club, we start in small groups. We discuss six questions about the book. We send you the questions before the meeting so you have time to think about them, but don't look at the questions until after you finish the book. Sometimes they tell you what happens at the end!

After the group work, we talk as one large group. Each group shares their best ideas and together we agree on what we liked and didn't like about the book. We usually don't agree, but that's OK!

Everyone over 18 is welcome to join the Middletown Book Club. You can come along to the meeting and introduce yourself there, or you could message us here to let us know that you would like to join us.
