@seb Hi everyone, how are things? Did you do anything fun last night? I didn't go out. I didn't sleep well the night before and I didn't feel like going out. I needed to rest so I watched a really good programme at home. In fact, I watched six hours of it. I didn't get to bed until after 1 a.m. and today I feel less awake than yesterday!

@kara Oh dear! Some old school friends came over to my house. I invited eight people but two couldn't come so I ended up with six plus me. I thought about making food for everyone but they offered to each bring something so we all made dinner which was fun. We played some games and had a laugh. I'm going to invite you all round some time.

@stewie Sounds fun, Kara. I went to see a film at the cinema with Andreas. I laughed a lot. It was really funny. Andreas didn't laugh much, but he said it was nice to get out of the house. After the film we had a walk through the city and looked at all the winter lights. It was really cold, but we felt fine with our hot chocolates to keep us warm.

@miki Hi all! I listened to some live music at the café near the university. They usually only have student bands there but this time they had a woman from my work. She sounded amazing. I hadn't heard her songs before and I was very surprised. I expected to like it, but I didn't expect to love it. I'm sending you all a link. You should listen to her.

@izzy Yes, send that link, Miki. I'm looking forward to our dinner at yours, Kara! I didn't do anything exciting. I met up with my family at a little café not far from my house. We've been before, but this time we had hot drinks and not a meal. I had a piece of cake but not chocolate – lemon for a change!

4 Read the messages again. Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 Seb was ill / tired.
- 2 Seb feels better / worse today.
- 3 Kara had six / eight friends at her house.
