Example answer:

In my city, we have a big food festival in the summer. It happens in August and lasts for one week. Usually my city isn't very busy, but many people come here for the festival. People go to restaurants and eat lots of fish and prawns. They also eat a special dessert made from yoghurt. Many people come to the city to eat the food. My family always goes to the same restaurant because the food is very famous there. My favourite thing is seeing so many people eating and having fun.

Example answer:

In this picture, there are lots of people in the street in a town or a city and there is a large building. There are some girls and boys dancing in the road. Two girls are dancing together. They are wearing traditional clothes. I think they are about 15 years old. Maybe they go to school together. This is a special festival and maybe this is a special dance. I think these young people don't usually dance in the street. There are many people watching. I think they like watching the dancers.
