What do the numbers say?

A

Milo has a lot of followers on Instagram. He's got over a thousand followers, but he is only 14 years old. How has he got so many followers? We talk to him about all this and more. Milo says ...

B

I love the internet and technology. I was a video game player when I was four years old. I remember my first game was 'Action Ball' in 2012. It was very exciting for me. Other sports like football or swimming weren't exciting for me, but video games were different. I love playing different characters and seeing all the colours.

C

A few years ago, I was at my friend's house. She was on Instagram. There were hundreds of interesting photos and videos on the app. It was amazing! We were in her room looking at photos for about two hours. My first Instagram post was on the 15th of June 2015. I remember it because it was the last day of school before the summer holidays.

D

Five years ago, all my Instagram posts were about my life – there were about ten posts a day of food and me and my friends. Now, my posts are different. I like painting and drawing and I want to be an artist in the future so most of my posts are my pictures. I don't have any pictures of food or people on my Instagram now – just 50 paintings.

E

Once a week, I post something different – usually a video of my two cats playing! One of my pictures has over 100 likes. And one person wants to give me €500 for one of my paintings – that's amazing!
