Example answer:

Last weekend, I visited my grandparents. On Saturday, we went for a walk on the beach near their house. The weather was sunny and we had a good time. I went swimming in the sea, but my grandparents didn't go swimming. I also took lots of pictures because the beach looked beautiful. In the evening, we went to a restaurant for dinner. The food was delicious. On Sunday, we went to a gallery. It was a bit boring. Then I drove home. I was tired when I arrived home.

In this picture, there is a large family. There are eight people in the picture. They are having dinner and there is a cake on the table. I think someone bought the cake from a shop; they didn't make it. Maybe it's a party for one of the children. One of the children is taking a photo of the party. I think the family went out together before and now it's evening and they are eating cakes. Everyone looks very happy. I think they are having a good time.
