Ex 3

Example answer:

In this picture, there are five people sitting in front of a window. There are three men who are wearing suits and two women who are wearing smart clothes. I imagine they're waiting for an interview or taking part in an interview or a test because they're holding notes. Four of them are busy looking at their notes whilst the last man is looking at the woman next to him. He looks a bit nervous so maybe he's worried about the interview or he doesn't know how to answer the questions. The other people look quite confident, especially the woman in the middle. She's smiling and she looks quite relaxed.

I'd much rather spend my time relaxing on the beach, but my family also want to go sightseeing.

5 (How has your town changed over the years?)

While there used to be a lot of shops, they're all closing now because everyone shops online.

Ex 3

Example answer:

In this picture, there are five women who are sitting in a restaurant. They're wearing smart clothes so maybe they're celebrating a special occasion like a birthday. There are various dishes on the table, like chicken, couscous and salad, and they're drinking water. They all look quite relaxed and most of them are smiling. Maybe the woman in glasses has said something funny because some of the women are looking at her. While most of them look happy, the woman at the other end of the table doesn't look quite so cheerful. Maybe she hasn't understood the joke or perhaps she isn't feeling very sociable.
