Report on how job opportunities have changed in Spain in the last fifty years

Introduction

The aim of this report is to outline the ways job opportunities have changed in Spain in the last fifty years.

Background situation

In the past, many people trained in one profession and even worked for one company for most of their working life. Nowadays, studies have shown that it is common for people to switch career several times or to work in several part-time jobs at the same time.

Main issues

It appears that people have more opportunities to try out different careers and find out which one is the most suitable. There are also more opportunities for people to become entrepreneurs. However, people have less job security these days and there is concern that their jobs will be replaced by technology in the future.

Conclusion

To conclude, it is clear that old ways of working are disappearing and young people must prepare for different ways of working in future. They will need to be flexible and prepared to switch career several times.

Part C

SPEAKING

Ex 1

- 1 When was the last time you had to change (your) plans?
- 2 Have you ever had a problem with a video call?
- 3 Would you prefer to work from home or in an office?
- 4 Have you ever had a part-time job?
- 5 What did you want to be when you were a child?

Ex 2

Example answers:

1 (Have you ever had to change (your) holiday plans at the last minute?)

A couple of years ago, I couldn't go on holiday because the flight was cancelled at the last minute.

2 (When was the last time you made a video call?)

It was a couple of days ago when I called my mother.

3 (Have you ever had a bad experience (of) working in a team?)

I don't think I've had a bad experience, but sometimes I find it difficult, especially if we all have different opinions.

4 (Would you like to reinvent yourself in (the) future?)

I don't think so. I always wanted to be a successful entrepreneur, but nowadays I'm happy with who I am.

5 (Do you think it's important to keep developing your skills?)

I think so because it's good to keep improving. It could be something you're already good at or it could be learning new skills.

Ex 3

Example answer:

In this picture, I can see a group of chefs who are in a big kitchen. While there's one chef in a dark uniform, there are four other chefs in light uniforms. They might be in a restaurant where chefs are trained because I can see someone else working in the background. I think the man who's wearing a dark uniform is teaching the other chefs. He's making some sort of dessert and it looks like he's showing them how to do it. The other chefs look quite young so maybe they're starting out in their career. They look quite serious and focused on what the man is doing.

3 (Would you prefer to work from home or in an office?)

I'd prefer to work from home because I don't like travelling to work. I waste two hours a day travelling.

4 (Have you ever had a part-time job?)

I had several part-time jobs when I was younger. I worked in supermarkets, restaurants and garden centres.

5 (What did you want to be when you were a child?)

I wanted to be a doctor, but I wasn't any good at science.

Ex 3

Example answer:

In this picture, I can see two people who look like engineers. They're standing in a large workshop and there are different machines and tools in the background. At the front of the picture, there is a female engineer who's using some sort of machine. Maybe she's using it to cut something like wood or metal. She's wearing a special hat and glasses to protect her eyes and head so it must be a dangerous job. There's a man next to her and he seems to be giving her instructions. Maybe he's training her or maybe they're working together to solve a problem.
