My best friend's name is George and he was born in London, in the UK. His mother is Belgian and his father is British. His first language is English, but he also speaks French quite well. His mother's family still lives in Belgium and he visits them regularly. Most people see him as British, but he would identify as Belgian as well.

In his personal life, he's quite a sociable and thoughtful person. His friends mean a lot to him and he would do anything for them. He also likes to try new things and he's recently taken up rock climbing. In fact, he's generally quite adventurous and he loves outdoor activities.

In his professional life, he's hard working and ambitious. He won't settle for anything less than the best conditions. In terms of his experience, he's mostly worked in business management. Ex 3

Example answer:

In this picture, there are five people sitting in front of a window. There are three men who are wearing suits and two women who are wearing smart clothes. I imagine they're waiting for an interview or taking part in an interview or a test because they're holding notes. Four of them are busy looking at their notes whilst the last man is looking at the woman next to him. He looks a bit nervous so maybe he's worried about the interview or he doesn't know how to answer the questions. The other people look quite confident, especially the woman in the middle. She's smiling and she looks quite relaxed.
