22. Read Simon's message. Answer the questions.

Hi Kim

Yesterday was my last day in tenth grade. It's Saturday morning, and the summer vacation starts now!

The weather's good right now. Today I'm going to stay home and relax, but if it's sunny tomorrow I'll go to the beach with my brother.

Next week I'm going to visit New York with my family. Dad bought the tickets for our flight last week. I'll definitely buy some souvenirs. It's the most exciting city in the world!

Yesterday evening I went to a party at Karen's house. We were all very excited because it was the end of school. I had a good time, but I didn't enjoy the music. Karen was playing rock music all evening. I'm not a fan of rock music!

The summer vacation lasts about six weeks, so I'll be back at school in September. I want to play on the school soccer team next year. I'm going to practice every week. I wasn't on the team last year, but maybe I'll get on the team if I practice.

I'm going to work harder in science class, too. Last year science was my worst subject. I got terrible results. Next year I'm going to do better. My science teacher will be angry if I get bad results again!

See you –
Simon
