9. Read the text. Answer the questions.

My name's Martin. I live in Miami, in the United States. There was a terrible hurricane in my city last year. It happened in August. I wasn't at home. I was on vacation with my parents in a hotel in Paris, France. My friend Sandra called me from Miami and told me about it. My parents and I watched the hurricane on TV in our hotel room. It was scary!

When we saw the hurricane, we wanted to come home. But we couldn't fly back to Miami that day because it was too dangerous. So we waited in Paris for a week, and we flew home in September.

When we got back to Miami, we had a terrible shock. There was a lot of damage in the city. We were lucky – the hurricane didn't do any serious damage to our house. But a tree in the yard fell down in the wind, and did a lot of damage to dad's car.

Twenty people died in the hurricane. My grandpa was outside when it started. The wind was terrible. He fell, and he broke his ankle. He had a lot of pain, and he felt awful. He took shelter in a school, and later he went to hospital. He's better now. In the future, he's going to watch the weather report more carefully!
