Singing Challenge

What is the singing challenge? Here's fifteen-year-old Lenny to tell us.

Our town has a singing challenge every summer in the park – it's brilliant! We sing, and we can write our own songs if we want. Some people play a musical instrument too. The challenge is for everyone, but you can't be a professional musician. It's fun, and we all enjoy it! There's always a big audience. Nobody wears their best clothes so they feel more relaxed.

Here's Lenny's sister, Amanda. What are you doing for the challenge, Amanda?

I'm getting ready to sing a jazz song. It's old, but it's cool! My friends prefer rock. They think jazz is alright, but I think it's the most interesting type of music. I can't stand techno or pop! I'm playing the guitar – it's easier than playing the piano in the park! I've got a piano at home – and a trumpet, but I can't play it!

Here's Micky. How do you feel about the challenge, Micky?

Wow! This challenge is hard – but it's amazing! My friends say I'm braver than them – I don't know about that, but I'm feeling confident! I can't play an instrument, but I like hip-hop – and my favourite is pop! I'm singing a pop song this year – and I'm thinking about my song for next year!
