go lose move not win play watch

Hi Arturo,
How are you? Last weekend I ⁰ went to watch my basketball team, the Reds, play. They're better than most other teams and usually ¹ _____ really well. The other team, the Blues, wasn't very good and everyone thought: 'The Blues can't beat us – we're too good'. But when I looked at the scoreboard near the end of the game, I saw the Blues ² _____ by 20 points! I thought to myself: 'The Reds ³ _____ now. It's not going to be possible'. I got up to leave, but just then they scored twice. With just a few seconds left in the game, they scored again and won. It was brilliant! This win means they ⁴ _____ up to the top league at the end of the season. ⁵ _____ (you/ever) a game like that?

Things to do in Liverpool?

Our family is going on a city break to Liverpool next month for a few days. Any advice on things to do?

Nessa365

I'm a huge supporter of Liverpool F.C., so when I was in Liverpool I went to the internationally famous football stadium. You can visit most parts of Anfield Stadium, including the team's changing room, then walk out and stand on the pitch. You can also take your photo in your favourite player's seat in the changing room or in the manager's chair on the side of the pitch. After the tour, you can visit the stadium shop. There you can get a football kit and put your name on the shirt! Even if you're not a football fan, it's a great day out.

I did the stadium tour with my brother because he supports them. It was quite interesting, but I didn't like it that much. If you're a fan of entertainment, your city break to Liverpool should definitely include a visit to the home of British pop music, the Cavern Club. During the day, families are welcome, so you can all go together. It first opened in 1957, and many famous musicians have given live performances there over the years. And of course, The Beatles became famous there! From 11.15 a.m. every day you can go to a live performance. Many bands perform The Beatles' songs (and even look like them). It's a great place to sing along to their songs!

Lennoner

C

There are lots of things to do in Liverpool. I went there with my family last year for a week. We wanted to go to the Cavern Club and watch a live performance but it was closed that week. We all really like walking, though, and Liverpool is a great city to see on foot. But instead of using a guidebook, we went on a brilliant walking tour. The guide wore old-fashioned clothes and entertained us while she brought the city's history to life. Highly recommended!
